

2015 Women's Breakfast

Filling the Pool

Gender Equity – the 3rd Pillar

Join us for our annual Women's Breakfast jointly hosted by Women in Technology WA, Women in Engineering, Women in Mining & Resources WA and the ACS Women. This year's theme focuses on the third pillar of the Filling the Pool research - Gender Equity seems a distant possibility, but what can women do to keep it on track? We are very pleased to welcome Marion Fulker, CEO of the Committee for Perth, to be our Opening Speaker. We will follow her talk with a panel of women representing the host organisations to have a conversation with everyone there.

DATE: 4 November 2015
TIME: 7.15am – 9am
COST: $20 General Admission / $10 Student Concession
VENUE: Gordon Stephenson House, 140 William Street, Perth
TICKETS: <http://witwawomensbreakfast.eventbrite.com.au>

Women's only event - Breakfast provided

Marion is the CEO of the Committee for Perth. She is an Adjunct Senior Research Fellow at the University of Western Australia and holds an MBA from Curtin Graduate School of Business. Through her on the ground research Marion has become recognised as one of the leading experts on the future growth and development of the Perth region.

Marion has project managed a number of landmark Committee for Perth research reports including Filling the Pool released in June 2015. This report marks a significant milestone in working towards gender equality in WA, and growing the number of women participating and progressing in corporate life in Perth. Copies of the Filling the Pool research report will be available at the breakfast for free, thanks to the Department of Local Government and Communities.
